Check On Policy Against Use Of Gas Requested

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — The U.S. military command in Saigon has asked Washington to re-examine U.S. policy against using nonlethal tear gas under certain conditions in the war in Viet Nam, it was learned in Saigon today.

In the field, Viet Cong guerrillas attacked in the Mekong delta and B52 bombers from Guam hit suspected Viet Cong positions for the 30th time in the war.

Saigon informants said the request on tear gas, made two weeks ago, asks that field commanders be permitted to use it in special instances.

A Marine field commander earlier this month used tear gas to rout Viet Cong guerrillas from a tunnel where they had taken refuge among civilians. The commander was said to feel it was the best way to rout the guerrillas with the least harm to civilians.

The tear gas request came as Viet Cong guerrillas launched wide-ranging attacks in the Mekong delta south of Saigon and U.S. forces exchanged shots with Communist units in the central highlands of South Viet Nam.

The Viet Cong lobbed mortar shells at two towns in Dinh Tuong Province 50 miles southwest of Saigon, killing or wounding 26 civilians, a U.S. military spokesman said.

The Communists overran an outpost in the same province and inflicted heavy losses on the defenders. They attacked another, causing light casualties.

The spokesman said the abandoned field hospital of 25 buildings was capable of handling 2,000 patients.

The paratroopers destroyed the complex and seized large quantities of medical supplies.

An intricate system of underground tunnels also was destroyed.

The spokesman said the troops also uncovered a Viet Cong ammunition factory with 186 pounds of explosives.

1,879 Doctors And Dentists Facing Draft

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department moved today to draft 1,879 doctors, dentists and veterinarians because of the armed forces buildup.

The Pentagon asked the selective Service to call 1,524 doctors, 350 dentists and 100 veterinarians for service in the Army, Navy and Air Force starting in January.

"The call is necessary to provide the health services required for the increase in the active armed forces strength announced in July by the President," the announcement said.

President Johnson has approved a 340,000-man boost in the armed forces, to the new total of nearly three million.

The Defense Department said the new doctor draft call stems in part from the fact that there have not been enough medical volunteers to meet the military buildup required in connection with the Vietnamese war.

Shastri Sees Chinese As 'Challenge'

Tells Parliament Nation Must Firmly Resolve To Meet It

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The Kashmir war ebbed today toward a truce, with the armed forces of both India and Pakistan ordered to quit shooting before another sunrise.

Red China's threat of immediate action against India also eased, but Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri told his Parliament that nation presents "an even greater challenge" and the Indians must firmly resolve to meet it.

Shastri and President Mohammed Ayub Khan of Pakistan announced a cease-fire to become effective in their three-week-old war at time translating as 5 p.m. EST today.

That is 3:30 a.m. Thursday in India; 3 a.m. in Pakistan — 15 hours beyond the deadline originally set by the U.N. Security Council.

Shastri wept as he announced the development in Parliament. He said the two Asian neighbors must live in neighborly peace.

Ayub said in a broadcast from Karachi he had ordered the cease-fire in the interests of international peace and he hoped it will lead India and Pakistan to an honorable settlement of their 18-year-old quarrel over Kashmir.

In this regard, Shastri said India has accepted the good offices offered by Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin. Kosygin had suggested that Shastri and Ayub meet in Soviet territory to discuss their differences.

Troops of both sides temporarily intend to stay put, stretched along a truce line similar to the Kashmir cease-fire boundary established by the United Nations in 1949 to divide the largely Moslem state between Moslem Pakistan and India, which is predominantly Hindu.

Shastri, speaking of Communist China's recent moves to beef up its military strength in Tibet along the Himalayan frontier opposite India and its buffer state protectorates, said: "We do not know what the Chinese will do next."

Earlier, India described as false an announcement from Peking that it has torn down military outposts on the Sikkim-Tibet frontier as demanded by Red China.

"We have not crossed into Tibet and we have not torn down anything," an official spokesman said.

Pakistan's Foreign Minister Zulfikar Ali Bhutto informed the U.N. Security Council in New York of his government's acceptance of its cease-fire order which has elected only two Democratic congressmen since the turn of the century, the last

250 To 290 Properties Involved At Wellsville

Further Details Given On Project

Some 250 to 290 properties are involved in the right-of-way for the relocation of Route 7 through Wellsville, State Highway Department officials said Tuesday.

Earl Nelson, the department's Division 11 deputy director at New Philadelphia, is shown pointing out the proposed route of the new highway to William Robinson, left, and Councilman Glenn Mathews, street and light chairman. They were among those who attended a briefing session in the office of Delmar T. O'Hara. Nelson later spoke to the Wellsville Kiwanis Club.

ROBINSON IS chairman of the highway committee of the Greater Wellsville Association.

The circles on the map indicate interchanges or access to the new highway.

Nelson announced that start of construction on the $6.5 million project is scheduled for 1968. He said the highway department will begin purchasing properties by the fall of 1967.

A 200-to-400-foot right-of-way is planned. Some 600 feet will be needed for the interchanges. The highway will be fenced in.

Nelson said the department "pays the fair market value for homes involved." Provisions also are made to pay up to $200 for moving expenses.

Brown, Berry Win In Bids For Congress

National Interest Will Be Shown In Election Nov. 2

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Clarence J. Brown Jr., political newcomer with a noted Republican name, squared off today against a young prosecuting attorney in a nationally watched fall election for the congressional seat Brown's father held 27 years.

Brown, a newspaper publisher, swamped six opponents for the GOP nomination in a special primary Tuesday while prosecutor James A. Berry of Clark County, most populous of the 7th District's eight counties, easily defeated a lone Democratic opponent.

Democrats promised a strong campaign with party help from Washington in Western Ohio district which has elected only two Democratic congressmen since the turn of the century, the last

Aaron Green of Rochester, Pa., another prosecution witness Tuesday, testified pistols found on the pair were stolen from his military surplus store in a burglary on the night of June 24.

The brothers were arrested after crashing on a curve in a car they commandeered from two Alliance youths outside the Airport Inn the morning of June 25, Constable Herbert Bolla of Smith Township near Alliance testified. Edward Icenhour was hospitalized with back injuries from the accident which ended a police chase of about three miles.

Puffinberger said he went into the Airport Inn with Elmer and had a chance to flee into a nearby wooded area and later telephone Constable Bolla for help. Edward stayed outside in the car.

Jury Returns Indictment In Stock Action

15 Counts Included In Action Against James R. Ferrese

A New Castle man has been indicted by a federal grand jury at Cleveland on 15 counts of using counterfeit stock certificates as security to obtain $225,000 in loans from six Ohio banks.

Nathaniel R. Jones, assistant U.S. attorney, said nearly $500,000 was involved in the three-state dealings of James R. Ferrese, 39, indicted Tuesday.

Banks in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Florida were linked to the activities of Ferrese, who has been operating a strip mine in the Guillford Lake area.

Jones had reported earlier in the investigation these banks and the following amounts of stock were pledged for loans: Farmers National Bank of Can-

Driver Cleared Of Charge

Tobin Asks 'Stop Signs' As Aftermath Of Hearing

East Liverpool city officials have been called on by Judge Louis Tobin to comply with the law relative to the erection of proper stop signs at intersections as the aftermath of a hearing Tuesday which saw a Pennsylvania driver cleared of a charge of failure to yield the right-of-way.

John P. Clevelan, 17, of Clevelan, was found not guilty of the traffic violation before Tobin in a Juvenile Court action at Lisbon.

Clevelan was cited here after a collision Sept. 12 at E. 5th and College Sts. involving his car and one driven by James Wallover, 48, of 1033 Ohio Ave. Both cars were demolished in the crash.

Police said Clevelan was heading north about 30 miles an hour and Wallover was traveling east at about 18 miles per hour.

Wallover reported he pulled away from the traffic light at E. 5th St., but did not know how the accident occurred.

Judge Tobin ruled in favor of the defendant yesterday when he learned that there was no "stop sign" at College and E. 5th Sts., the scene of the accident.

He said that he has sent journal entries of the case to both Robert E. Vodrey, safety-service director, and Chief of Police

Caucus Session Set Tuesday

Salary Increases Studied By Council At Wellsville

Wellsville City Council will meet in caucus session next Tuesday at 8 p.m. to discuss salary increases for city employees and for elected officials.

The members agreed to the caucus after a discussion at last night's regular session.

Mayor William Daugherty had requested at the Sept. 7 meeting that Council consider granting raises to 21 employees. He said the financial situation in some departments warranted increases.

Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare last night suggested granting overtime pay at the rate of $2.50 an hour if the regular wage increases are not granted.

Presently, refuse collection and water department employees receive $1.67 an hour. The mayor said these departments are showing profits and the employees should be given more money.

Councilman Paul Todd, finance chairman, also said wage increases should be considered.

Councilman Walter Henthorn suggested that the pay of Council members be raised from $20 to $50 a month.

After a lengthy discussion, it was agreed to meet next week to re-check the city's finances to determine if increases can be granted.

In other business, Councilman discussed the purchase of a sewer cleaning machine at the cost of $3,600. Some of the members viewed a demonstration of the machine this week. Councilmen Nunzio Lombardozzi and Glenn

Bank Robber Uses Rope To Escape Jail

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) —

One of the most wanted men in the Western Hemisphere, arrested with the help of the Early Bird satellite four months ago, has escaped from jail by the ancient method of a rope down a wall.

Georges LeMay,

a dapper Canadian wanted in the spectacular burglary of a Montreal bank, made a clean getaway Tuesday night from the seventh floor of the modern County Jail.

He shattered the panes of an unbarred window, slid 90 feet down a cleaning house anchored

to plumbing, and screeched

away with three men in a 1965

white sedan.

Police said they were investigating the possibility that LeMay had some inside help getting from his fifth floor cell to the unoccupied seventh floor.

LeMay, considered one of the smoothest operators in modern annals, has not hurt for money. He paid his debts at a Fort Lauderdale marina where he was arrested May 6 from a fist-sized roll of $100 bills.

Police and the FBI spread a dragnet for LeMay, 39, but if they had any leads, they weren't talking about them. LeMay, a seasoned yachtsman, could put out to sea from any of hundreds of secluded coves along the Florida coast.

LeMay is charged with leading a crew that tunneled under the Bank of Nova Scotia in 1961 and blasted open 377 safety deposit boxes.

They escaped with between $500,000 and $4 million, but the exact amount was never established because of the reluctance of the box owners to talk.

The stocky, 5-foot-8 college graduate has been Canada's most wanted person since then. He was hunted all over the world for four years but was not discovered until the Royal Canadian Mounted Police flashed his picture on the first Early Bird satellite television program.

Police and the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department recovered the collection from a car parked in a garage in Geneva Township.

Freedom Of Choice Threat

No American can be forced to join the American Legion, the Scouts or any church against his will.

No American can be forced to go to work for a private business against his will.

But he can be forced to join a labor union—yes, against his will—if Congress repeals right-to-work laws across the nation in apparent obedience to the President's intent to repay his election debts to organized labor's overlords.

Twenty states now have right-to-work laws. The citizens of those states apparently want to keep them. They are not hoping, as labor often charges, to "bust" the unions but just want to permit workers to choose for themselves the conditions under which they work.

OHIO does not have a right-to-work law. Its citizens overwhelmingly defeated a right-to-work measure in 1958. They wanted it that way.

But the current effort in Washington to repeal Sect. 14B of the Taft-Hartley Labor Relations Act would deny the people of individual states a right to decide the issue.

Again the federal government takes the position that it, and only it, knows best how to run citizens' lives.

But there is more to it than that.

President Johnson has promised organized labor, which is steadily losing ground in its long march to chattel the working man, that he will win the battle for them.

Rep. Hays Vs. Goldberg

Ohio's 18th District representative to Congress, Wayne L. Hays of Flushing, has declined to serve on the U.S. delegation to this week's session of the United Nations Assembly.

He says he "cannot conceive being a Charlie McCarthy to Ambassador Goldberg's Edgar Bergen."

Rep. Hays was very unhappy with Ambassador Goldberg's explanation before the House Foreign Affairs Committee of the reasons for the U.S. backdown on Article 19 of the U.N. charter, which had "the effect of excusing the Soviet Union of making any payments to the U.N., except those it wants to make."

The Ohio congressman described it as "the poorest presentation made to the in effect, whether the American citizen likes it or not.

Compulsory unionism would then become a national policy rather than something to be decided at the state level.

THE CLAIM of labor leaders that unions help non-members and thus those who reap the benefits should be made to join is as ridiculous as trying to make every business in every city join the Chamber of Commerce.

Or making everybody join the Elks, or Lions, or Kiwanis because of the good they do.

Suppose every parent was required to join the PTA, every homeowner a homeowners' association, every fisherman a game protective society.

This is a "civil rights" issue that every American must take interest and action in. He is otherwise embarked on a course that will lose him the precious right of choice.

EVERY INDIVIDUAL who values free choice, free association as it is provided for in the Constitution should be alarmed at the prospect of repeal of 14B.

Congress should be bombarded with letters opposing this attempt at compulsion by the union leaders and President Johnson.

And the President should recognize if he continues to strive for repeal of 14B that he is not acting as a servant of the people—but rather as a slave to labor leaders.

Rep. Hays can see no advantage of just compromise in the U.S. position on U.N. peace-keeping assessments, and neither does this newspaper.

The Soviet Union appears to operate on the theory that what is theirs is theirs and what is ours is negotiable.

Perhaps Mr. Goldberg, who first came to public attention as a successful labor attorney, is so indoctrinated in union technique that he sees nothing challengeable in that kind of Soviet intransigence.

With Allowance For Leeway

In an auto production and price forecast, Charles C. Cain, business news writer for The Associated Press, refers to scattered price increases in one manufacturer's line. He surmises the increases might indicate an industry trend.

Here again is the price-efficiency equation that is replacing supply and demand as the controlling element in consumer costs.

The equation has been at work in the auto industry for years. Despite rising wage costs and increases in the price of materials, the auto industry has held down its prices while giving consumers equal or greater value for their money. This has been done by spectacular advances in efficiency of production — more and better automation and mechanization, fewer but better trained employees.

There had been no hint of higher prices in recent years. On the contrary, the actual prices of autos have been stabilized for the most part and substantially lower whenever dealers were under extraordinary pressure to move heavy inventories.

There has been the same over-all effect of competition that has stabilized prices in the steel industry. Prices have been kept down by the most efficient producers.

As between domestic producers and foreign competitors, the latter have kept a lid on domestic price levels by shipping in significant quantities of steel being produced in super-efficient mills in West Germany and Japan.

In guessing the future price of steel or autos, allowance must be made for leeway in handling each transaction. Three prices are mentioned — the asking price, bidding price and the actual selling price. They rarely coincide.

The Last Day Of Summer

This year for a change, the last day of summer was a super-bloomer, like the last rose.

Thriving grass was tied with petunias and late-blooming gladioli for first place in the September growth sweepstakes.

If there were times in midsummer when the temperature resembled October, there were times this September when the temperature was where everybody wishes it would be in June.

In recent years, the June temperature has been like early spring — and early spring has been like the middle of the winter.

This has been raising a question about

Moscow 'Isolates' Red China In Stand

cow and Washington act together, but Red China was, in effect, isolated.

Circumstantial reports indicate the Soviet government has not been happy with the behavior of Red China in international affairs. But the showdown did not come until the resolution of the Security Council in the United Nations was acted upon early last Monday.

Why did Moscow turn away from its ally? The basic reason undoubtedly is that any large-scale war would cost the Soviet Union a good deal of money sorely needed in the domestic economic crises facing Soviet leaders.

Naturally, there is satisfaction in Washington that Soviet emissaries to the U.N. and U.S. representatives saw eye-to-eye on the wording of the resolution adopted by the Security Council.

It serves not merely as a warning to India and Pakistan that they had better extricate themselves from the situation in which they have become involved, but also as a warning to Red China that it had better not meddle any further.

IT IS BEING assumed that both the Indian and Pakistani governments will welcome a face-saving device such as the U.N. resolution offers them.

Not only does it call for a cease-fire, but the whole problem is to be turned over to the United Nations for further negotiations.

Relations between Peiping and Moscow have been a source of much U.S. concern for a long time. While outwardly there have been signs of discord, there was no certainty that underneath it understanding might not prevail—particularly since the ideological objectives of Red China and the Soviet Union are similar.

Although the Soviet Union has concurred in the idea of carrying on subversion and infiltration campaigns around the world, it has not been willing to provoke large military operations.

Indeed, withdrawal of missiles and troops from Cuba is an example of the self-limitation which the Soviet government evidently places upon its operations in far-distant lands. It is inclined to go up to a point of climax but, when there is danger of escalation into a big war, the tendency is to pull back.

There is no doubt that the Soviet Union would not have been averse to letting India and Pakistan fight it out between themselves, but the moment Red China issued its ultimatum to India, the danger of an enlarged war undoubtedly caused a change of heart in Moscow.

Nor could it be overlooked that the United States today has placed a sizeable military force in Viet Nam and is prepared to go further against the Red Chinese if they extend their aggression in Viet Nam or elsewhere in Asia.

IF, THEREFORE, the Soviet Union follows through on the position it took in backing the United Nations resolution for intervention in the India-Pakistan war and the risk of a large-scale conflict in Asia is averted, there will undoubtedly be a more friendly feeling between the Soviet Union and the United States, as well as the countries of Western Europe.

From Moscow's point of view, this will help in its crusade for better relations between Eastern and Western Europe. Perhaps this will inaugurate a period of readjustment in which trade between the East and West will be increased. The Soviets need more trade in order to improve their economic position at home.

All this undoubtedly prompted the Moscow government to line up on the side of a peaceful settlement of the India-Pakistan dispute.

It could mean the development of an entente with the West for the maintenance of peace in the world—at least for a few years to come.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO—Distracted theatergoers were among those saddened by the death at 77 of Dewolf Hopper, noted actor.

Ten members of Columbian County Voiture 273, 40 & 8 Society, all from East Liverpool, attended the annual American Legion convention at St. Louis. They made the trip in the 40 & 8 Society's French locomotive and box car.

TWENTY YEARS AGO—The Joint Farewell Association announced plans to add two new wings on the armed services honor roll board at City Hall.

Mrs. Margaret Gibbons was elected queen of Tri-State Sisterhood 199, Dames of Malta.

More than 300 attended the 125th anniversary celebration of the Bethesda Presbyterian Church near Millport.

F. L. Freshwater of Indiana Ave., Chester, found an eight-inch-wide mushroom on the Emory Herron farm between Pughtown and Frankfort.

TEN YEARS AGO—Blair Patterson was named president of the New Cumberland Boosters Club. Others elected were Elmer Swearingen, vice president; Jay Carse, secretary, and Burns McNeil, treasurer.

JOHNSON said not a word, letting others do it for him. Dirksen and a batch of Democrats rushed to Johnson's defense.

If the President had let himself get drawn into an argument with Fulbright, the issue Fulbright raised would have drawn far more public attention than it did. The whole thing subsided in a couple of days.

This is the way Johnson acts when he's a winner, as he is now, high in the public opinion polls and enormously successful with Congress in general. What is unknown is how he would act and react if he ran into severe adversity.

Some of the legislation Congress approved this year is historic. But Johnson's present coolness, his political efficiency, and the fact that the Republicans are hardly more than a platoon amid Democratic battalions, have made this year look almost humdrum.

JOHNSON is also a far better political technician than Kennedy and he works around the clock lining up votes for his legislation. And Johnson is luckier than Truman in one way.

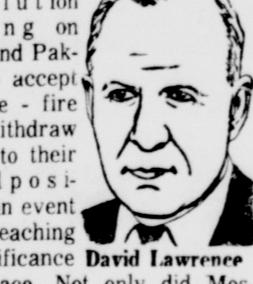

The Republican Senate leader, Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, is one of his best helpers. Any Republican opposition in the Senate has been mostly insignificant.

Johnson has had trouble with the Republican House leader, Gerald R. Ford of Michigan, who has been his most persistent critic in that body. But this is where Johnson's political professionalism shows up.

Johnson pays close attention to public opinion polls. They show he has wide popular support, which is the opposite of

By DAVID LAWRENCE

When the United States and the Soviet Union lined up on the same side to put through the U.N. Security Council by unanimous vote a resolution calling on India and Pakistan to accept a cease-fire and withdraw troops to their original positions, an event of far-reaching significance took place. Not only did Moscow and Washington act together, but Red China was, in effect, isolated.

Circumstantial reports indicate the Soviet government has not been happy with the behavior of Red China in international affairs. But the showdown did not come until the resolution of the Security Council in the United Nations was acted upon early last Monday.

Why did Moscow turn away from its ally? The basic reason undoubtedly is that any large-scale war would cost the Soviet Union a good deal of money sorely needed in the domestic economic crises facing Soviet leaders.

Naturally, there is satisfaction in Washington that Soviet emissaries to the U.N. and U.S. representatives saw eye-to-eye on the wording of the resolution adopted by the Security Council.

It serves not merely as a warning to India and Pakistan that they had better extricate themselves from the situation in which they have become involved, but also as a warning to Red China that it had better not meddle any further.

Relations between Peiping and Moscow have been a source of much U.S. concern for a long time.

While outwardly there have been signs of discord, there was no certainty that underneath it understanding might

Automation Keeps Labor Chiefs Busy

NEW YORK

Time has come to talk candidly of automation and labor leaders.

They've turned the mesh of electronically-brained machinery into a mythology. They're bucking it instead of rolling with it—and they'll hurl themselves right out of the national power structure unless they reassess their retreat from realism.

They talk of doom and there is only boom. They curse automation as the industrial arsenic on which anywhere from 40,000 to 70,000 jobs a week will disappear. And jobs are zooming in the very area where their oratorical melancholy is deepest.

Not too long ago when we first began covering the manufacturing areas, we wrote of 13 million workers therein. A few days ago the federal reports had it that this has grown to well over 18 million.

They talk of doom and there is only boom. They curse automation as the industrial arsenic on which anywhere from 40,000 to 70,000 jobs a week will disappear. And jobs are zooming in the very area where their oratorical melancholy is deepest.

Vodrey Sets McDaniel Hearing For Saturday

Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey has set his formal inquiry Saturday at 9 a.m. on charges filed by Police Chief Americo J. Radeschi against Lt. William E. McDaniel.

The chief accused the officer of being under the influence of alcoholic beverages and treating the public discourteously while on duty early the morning of Aug. 17. He ordered McDaniel suspended without pay, effective next Monday.

The director's hearing will determine whether he will affirm, dismiss or modify the chief's order. The hearing originally had been set for Friday, but was continued 24 hours at the lieutenant's request.

Wilbur MacLean suggested the city be bypassed, taking the highway up over the hill from Yellow Creek and joining the Lake Erie - Ohio River project near the intersection of Routes 7 and 30 in the Cannons Mills area. He said this would cut off mileage and still leave Wellsville with access.

Levi (Jack) Kimble, Nelson's assistant, said aerial surveys have been made of this proposal, but it is not feasible.

Weis urged the Kiwanians to attend a public hearing to be held on the highway sometime in November.

3 Join Glenmoor Fire Department At Training Class

Three firemen were added to the Glenmoor volunteer fire department Tuesday during an instruction class at the fire hall.

Accepted for the force were Clark Gear, Rodney Meeks and Boyd Devore.

Fire Chief Kenneth Mills instructed the class on safe handling of vehicles while responding to calls. Frank Rizor, assistant chief, explained the use of the Civil Defense truck which will serve while a pumper truck is being repaired.

Firemen discussed the problems encountered with people failing to yield the right of way to emergency vehicles.

Chief Mills explains that this not only delays the firemen from getting to the scene of the fire, but also endangers the lives of others.

Mills issued a strong warning of prosecution of violators.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wathey were accepted into the Glenmoor Volunteer Firemen's Association.

Stolen Check Found; Officers Cite 2 Boys

A $174 check stolen Sunday from the mailbox of Earl Salisbury, 400 Poplar Ln., was returned to police headquarters early today and two boys, 6 and 9, later admitted the theft, Capt. Robert Pyle reported.

The mother of one of the boys telephoned headquarters early today and said she had discovered the missing check. A cruiser officer was sent to recover the check.

The captain later talked with the two youngsters at their school. He said they admitted the theft. The boys probably will be cited before James Miller, county juvenile probation officer, he said.

Section 462 of the ordinance of East Liverpool requires the chief of police to place and maintain on each and every street at an intersecting through street an appropriate sign, which in this case would be a stop sign. School Supt. Paul Blair today clarified a Review story concerning the hiring of two women by the Board of Education Monday night, explaining they were hired for cleaning duties, not as custodians.

Mrs. Helen Britton and Mrs. Kathleen Lee were employed at $1.25 an hour for use throughout the schools, but will be assigned to Westgate where the custodial staff is short because of custodial changes.

Private Property Involved

Hit-Skip Count Dismissed Under 'Flaw' In City Code

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today conceded a defense contention that the City Code does not cover cases of hit-skip driving which occur on private property and dismissed a charge in which a Williamsport area woman was accused of failing to "stop and give information required by law" after her auto allegedly bumped another on a Dresden Ave. parking lot on Sept. 13.

Mrs. Billie Boston was accused of failing to comply with the code after her car allegedly bumped the 1956 auto of William Freeman, 418 E. 4th St., on a lot outside the Roma Cafe.

The defendant did not take the stand, as the dismissal motion of her counsel, Charles Lang, was granted by the court after the city's case had been presented.

Lang cited Section 414 of the City Code under which the charge was filed. He pointed out to the court that it requires a motorist to halt after a mishap on the "public roads, streets or highways" within the corporate limits. Then he cited the fact that all the prosecution testimony showed the alleged collision occurred on private property.

The judge commented that a new state law covers accidents which occur on private property, but the case was not filed under the Ohio Revised Code. Since criminal law requires the statutes to be construed "strictly," the court had no alternative except to dismiss the charge, the judge said.

Freeman testified he was sit-

Mathess both urged serious consideration be given the purchase. It was pointed out that the city has been plagued constantly with stopped up sewers and the present equipment is not adequate to handle the work.

Council ordered legislation calling for the return to the city of 4 per cent of the net rate for subscribers to the television cable service of CATV of Ohio Valley, Inc. The franchise ordinance will be amended to read that money be paid into the general fund.

Officials had the alternative of granting a reduction to the subscribers or putting the money in the city coffers.

At a private meeting in East Liverpool more than a week ago, Wellsville and East Liverpool Councils had agreed informally to pass along the reduction to the subscribers.

A motion to do so last night was defeated 4-3. The motion ordering the amendment to provide the money for the city passed 5-2.

At the opening of Council, Daugherty urged this action be considered. He said the amount being given to the individual subscriber was insignificant, but that collectively it could mean possibly $3,600 to the city.

The Police Pension Board asked Council to appoint two of its members to the board.

Council adopted a resolution putting into motion the necessary action toward issuing a $5,000 note to obtain money to replace the roof and do other repairs to the city-owned building at 12th St. The city will borrow money from departments with a surplus and pay it back with money ordinarily used to pay rentals for garage space for city vehicles. The building will be used to house city equipment.

Councilman Aguin Bowling said that $5,600 was collected from Zone 1 of the water department of the city last month, the largest collection in one zone in the 16 years of the present department. He said water is shut off at two homes where the residents have not paid.

Lombardozzi said he still is compiling a list of old cars parked on city streets and of properties where the owners have not kept the weeds cut. The police department will be asked to tow away the cars and letters will be sent to the property owners informing them of a city ordinance requiring cutting of weeds.

A discussion was held on the problem of speeding and other traffic violations within the city. Todd said signs are needed along Center St. and urged additional signs on Clark Ave.

Baldasare claims police are not issuing tickets for parking violations on yellow curbs.

Henthorne suggested purchase of a portable radar meter, claiming it would pay for itself in a short time. He said it would cost approximately $1,000 and that the money could be taken from the parking meter fund.

Daugherty said that if residents obtain the license numbers of cars speeding and file charges, they will be brought into court. He again asked Council to consider a $400 appropriation with which to hire persons to patrol school areas and file charges against violators.

Baldasare asked Council to make a one-way street of 12th St. between Main and Center Sts.

A discussion was held on possible traffic control at the entrance of Mason's Foodliner on the four-lane highway. Baldasare said a survey was made of the area in 1962 and the state recommendations turned down by Council at the time. Mathess, street and light chairman, was asked to go over the survey within what was termed Tibetan territory and had then withdrawn.

The mayor pointed out he drawn.

time during the 1936 Roosevelt landslide.

Democratic leaders term their chances the best in 30 years because President Johnson carried all but one county last year and Democrats cut in half the Brown St. Brown, ranking Republican on the House Rules Committee, died Aug. 23.

The term sought by his 38-year-old son and Berry, 35, runs to Jan. 3, 1967. The winner will be determined in a Nov. 2 special election called to coincide with Ohio city elections.

Former U. S. Rep. Robert Taft Jr., son of Ohio's late "Mr. Republican" and a friend of young Brown, feels the election outcome could point to a national trend for the 1966 congressional elections.

Taft and other GOP leaders expressed confidence that recent Democratic gains in the traditionally Democratic areas could be reversed.

Brown scheduled a meeting today with Ohio party leaders to plan an intensive campaign, expected to feature national GOP speakers.

More than 41,000 voters turned out on a hot sunny day, about twice the number predicted by election officials for the district with 450,000 population. Republicans outvoted Democrats 3-1.

Brown amassed 18,680 votes to swamp his closest rival, state Rep. Charles E. Fry, 49, Springfield, who got 8,485. Fry carried only his home Clark County. Brown lives in Urbana, Champaign County.

Berry also ran strongest in Clark County, where Democrats made their most notable 1964 inroads on GOP strength.

Berry trounced Joseph A. Sheridan, 28, of Fairborn, a graduate student at American University in Washington, D.C., 7,154 to 3,284.

3 Battles Share Spotlight On Local Gridiron Stage

Three games share the spotlight this weekend on the district gridiron scene as 10 games are carded Friday by three more Saturday.

Leading the 10-game list Friday is the first meeting between East Liverpool-Oak Glen, Midland's battle with Beaver and the Wellsville-Toronto contest.

This weekend also marks the opening of action in the Buckeye Border Conference and Tri-County League.

While the East Liverpool-Oak Glen neighborhood contest has no bearing on league standings the Midland-Beaver and Wellsville-Toronto games do.

Midland's loss to East Liverpool didn't in any way affect the Leopards as far as WPIAL points go. However, the Leopards tackle their arch rival, Beaver Friday night at Beaver.

The loser of this game faces elimination

League Games Mark Weekend Card

from the WPIAL race and at the same time the contest is a Midwestern Athletic Conference game where the Leopards are defending champs.

Midland, after rolling over Mohawk suffered a 30-20 defeat last week at East Liverpool after Joe Cochran's charges had compiled a 20-0 halftime lead.

While one spotlight will focus on Beaver, another will be centered on Toronto where the Tigers, with Chris Thornton and Co. put two straight victories against the class of the Buckeye Border Conference.

Toronto didn't have much trouble in rolling over Springfield Local in its opener but ran into a buzz saw last Friday at Carrollton losing a 20-0 decision in a non-league contest.

In another Buckeye Conference game, Beaver Local, fresh from a 24-0 shutout of Leetonia travels to Springfield Local.

Springfield, after losing its opener to Toronto defeated Southern Local last week. Coach Don Ross at Beaver Local has apparently come up with a sophomore find in Dennis Klembara, who turned in a fine job of running the team from quarterback in the Leetonia victory.

Tri-County action finds three county teams involved. East Palestine, with a loss and a tie to its credit entertains Sebring in one league battle while winless Leetonia visits Louisville and Lisbon goes to Minerva.

Southern Local will tackle undefeated Stanton Local. The Red Raiders have defeated Hopewell and Mt. Pleasant without too much trouble.

In two other games, Salem after absorbing a loss to Ravenna last week plays host to Lorain while South Side takes its 1-1 record to Mars.

Saturday's card is headed by the East Canton at United battle. United is setting on a two game winning streak after handing Leetonia and Sebring set backs.

Two other games finds a Tri-County battle as Columbiana visits Poland and Crestview will be seeking its first win when entertaining Lowellville.

Drysdale Leads LA To 3-1 Win

Cincy Posts 7-4 Verdict Over Giants

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Don Drysdale — good-hitting pitcher, or good-pitching pitcher.

Take your pick. He's helping keep the Los Angeles Dodgers afe in the National League race with both his arm and his bat.

Drysdale's versatile performance Tuesday night was typical. The tall right-hander recorded his 21st pitching victory of the season with a six-hitter, drove

General Admission To Be Sold For Game

Russell Slack, principal at Oak Glen High School, announced that 2,500 general admission seats will go on sale Friday when the gates at Newell Memorial Field open at 6 p.m. All reserved seats have been sold. The general admission tickets are $1. Slack said there will be seating for 4,800 fans.

in the clinching run with a single, and helped build an insurance run with another single.

Result: The Dodgers' fifth straight victory, 3-1 over Milwaukee, and a notch upward in pennant scramble.

Second-place Los Angeles now is three games back of the San Francisco Giants, who were trimmed 7-4 by Cincinnati after an error by first baseman Willie McCovey opened the way for four unearned runs.

Drysdale's two hits raised his batting average to .298, highest for the Dodgers, while his third straight victory raised his pitching record to 21-12. The lone Milwaukee run, in the fourth inning after an error by Maury Wills, was unearned — giving the Dodger pitching staff the remarkable distinction of allowing just one earned run in 45 innings covering the club's five-game winning string.

In other NL action — Jim Pagliaroni's two-run Homer with two out in the last of the ninth lifted the Pittsburgh Pirates to their fifth straight victory, 6-5 over the New York Mets; Ron Santo rapped two homers and drove in six runs as the Chicago Cubs beat Philadelphia 7-5; and St. Louis blanked Houston 3-0.

The Giants, who had won 17 of their last 18 games, went into the sixth inning at Cincinnati with a 4-1 lead — but came out of it trailing 7-4.

Two Red runs were in, two were out and bases were loaded when Tommy Harper sent a grounder to McCovey. The big first baseman bobbled it, enabling another run to score. Then Pete Rose's single made it 5-4, and Vada Pinson capped the rally with his second hit of the inning — a two-run single.

Frank Robinson hit his 30th Homer for the Reds, and Jim Davenport homered with two on for the Giants.

Bill Mazeroski kept the Pirates alive against the Mets with a one-out single in the ninth. Then, after reliever Dave Eilers fanned Willie Stargell, Pagliaroni tagged his game-winning Homer.

Santo socked his 30th Homer, with two aboard, in the first inning, singled across a run in the third, and broke a 5-5 tie in the eighth when he hit his 31st Homer, with one on. Ernie Banks accounted for the other Cub run against the Phils with his 26th Homer, in the first inning.

Ray Sadecki and Hal Woodeshick combined for a five-hitter in the Cardinals' shutout of the Astros. Sadecki, who doubled in one St. Louis run left with one out in the ninth after walking two men, Woodeshick gave up another walk, but Norman Miller then bashed into a game-ending double play.

Georgia Tech had its longest football winning streak, 31 games, broken by Notre Dame, 27-14, in 1953.

Scribe Picks Purdue Over Irish, Penn State To Defeat Spartans

By HAROLD CLASSEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — It is 96 years ago since Princeton and Rutgers invented what now is known as American football.

The rivalry was intense then and will be again Saturday when these ancient foes meet. That's about the only that that remains the same, everything else has changed including the probable winner.

Rutgers won that first game but this time Princeton is the pick, perhaps by the same margin as the Tigers' 10-7 triumph of a year ago. There's added interest this season because twin brothers are the rival captains. Paul Savidge is a guard and the Princeton leader, Pete Savidge, is a center and the Rutgers captain.

Other picks for the coming weekend:

Purdue over Notre Dame: The Big Ten Boilermakers have burst previous Notre Dame bubbles and will do it again, drawing strength from the backing of the hometown crowd. Purdue will contain the speedy Nick Basye.

Nebraska over Air Force: The Huskers have the better battery.

Texas over Texas Tech: But the losers' Donny Anderson will be the star of the game.

Michigan over California: The defending Rose Bowl champions still have plenty left.

Arkansas over Tulsa: Jon Brittenham has taken over as the Porker quarterback, the team's only major weak spot.

Louisiana State over Rice: The Texans will think they are being entertained by Hurricane Basye.

Florida over Mississippi State: The Gators romped over Northwestern last Saturday.

Syracuse over Miami of Florida: Floyd Little was held in check last week. It can't be done two weeks in a row.

Kentucky over Mississippi: The home field gives the Wildcats a thin edge.

Georgia over Vanderbilt: The Georgia Bulldogs showed they could bite as well as growl in their amazing triumph over Alabama.

Louisiana over Oregon State: Your television entertainment. The Coast Rose Bowl team lost 19 lettermen and its coach.

Penn State over Michigan State: Two powerhouses. It should be close.

Minnesota over Washington State: The Gophers have found the quarterback they needed.

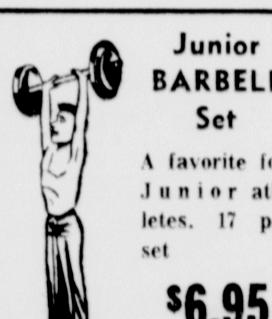

Ohio State over North Carolina: There are too many Ohioans.

Maryland over Ohio University, Pittsburgh over Oklahoma, Illinois over Southern Methodist, Indiana over Northwestern, Southern California over Wisconsin, Houston over Cincinnati.

Tribe Boss Says Cronin Errored

NEW YORK (AP) — Gabe Paul, president of the Cleveland Indians, said today that Joe Cronin, president of the American League, had made a "very serious mistake" in fining Pedro Gonzalez without a hearing.

Cronin, on Tuesday, fined Gonzalez, a Cleveland infielder, $500 and suspended him for the remainder of the season "for the bat in his hand. Gonzalez engaging in a physical attack with a baseball bat" on Detroit pitcher Larry Sherry in Monday night's game in Cleveland.

The incident occurred in the fifth inning after Sherry had thrown two close pitches to Gonzalez. A melee resulted when Gonzalez charged Sherry with penalty without giving him an opportunity to state his case."

Cronin could not be reached for comment on Paul's views.

Gonzalez, who learned of Cronin's action after he had arrived here with the Cleveland team for a series with the Yankees, said he didn't hit Sherry and "I don't remember even swinging at him. If I had wanted to hit him with the bat, I would have."

"I'm not saying I was right in going after him with a bat, but sometimes you don't think. Why should he want to throw at me? I never do nothing to him."

The episode recalled the Juan Marichal-John Roseboro incident in August. Marichal, star pitcher for San Francisco, was fined $1,750 and suspended eight playing days by National League President Warren Giles for hitting Roseboro, catcher for the Los Angeles Dodgers, on the head with a bat.

Greater Seattle Open To Start On Thursday

SEATTLE (AP) — The $45,000 Greater Seattle Open Golf Tournament gets under way Thursday with three of its four former champions hoping to repeat.

Bobby Nichols, who took the title two years ago, has pneumonia and withdrew Tuesday.

Competing for the $6,000 top prize will be Jack Nicklaus, the 1962 champion whose victory in the Portland Open last week boosted his total earnings to a record $145,539; Dave Marr, the winner in 1961, and defending champion Billy Casper.

49ers Brodie Picked NFL Back Of Week

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — John Brodie, veteran quarterback for the San Francisco 49ers, gives full credit to his line and receivers for the honors recorded him by The Associated Press as the National Football League's Offensive Player of the Week.

Brodie, the veteran from Stanford, fired four touchdown passes as the 49ers whipped the Chicago Bears 52-24 in their opener.

Fully appreciating the honor, Brodie said John David Crow made "the really key run for our first touchdown and Bernie Casey made a great catch on the second one."

Booted frequently during past seasons when the 49ers twice finished last in the Western Division, Brodie had charge Sunday as San Francisco ran up its highest score in the NFL.

He gave credit to others in saying, "Indicative of the way the offensive line has played is the fact I've only been caught once all year."

"The protection has been about the best I've ever seen, not just with the 49ers but for anybody. It's just perfect, that's all."

Yesterday's Stars

BATTING — Ron Santo, Chicago, drove in six runs with a pair of homers and a single as the Cubs trimmed Philadelphia 7-5.

PITCHING — Fred Newman, California, pitched a five-hitter as the Angels downed Boston 4-0.

Defensive Honors Won By Eagles' Linebacker

The 248-pound former Georgia star who lost 10 pounds in the 94-degree heat at Franklin Field said the Eagles overshifted with the tackles head up on the Cardinal center, leaving only the fullback between him and Johnson.

"I was able to get a running start," said Lloyd, formerly with Cleveland and Detroit

Another Test Run Set For Speed Record

BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS

Utah (AP) — Time was when racers here in western Utah needed a running start in quest of speed records.

Walt Arfons of Akron, Ohio

may have changed all that

Tuesday with the rocket-pow-ered "Wingfoot Express."

His driver, Bob Tatre of Grand Rapids, Mich., made two test runs, averaging 113 and 168 miles an hour — both from standing starts.

Another test run was sched-uled today. The attempt to crack the world land speed record set by Walt's brother last October is tentatively slated for Thursday or Friday.

Art Arfons raced across the flats in the jet-powered "Green Monster" last year at 536.7 m.p.h.

This is the 76th football sea-son for Syracuse University.

Bragan Seen Returning In 1966 Season

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Controversial Bobby Bragan has apparently survived a bitter and disappointing final season in Milwaukee and will be back at the helm of the Braves next year in Atlanta.

"I have every reason to feel confident about 1966," said Bragan.

gan, whose Braves fell out of the National League pennant race in the past two weeks. "I'm not worried.

"I've always enjoyed a very fine association with the Braves, specifically with John McHale (the president)."

Bragan, fired from earlier managerial jobs at Pittsburgh and Cleveland, has never finished higher than fifth, the Braves' current spot in the standings.

Bragan's 1965 team appeared a prime contender for the pennant after reeling off 10 straight wins in July. The Braves twice moved into the lead in August but couldn't hold on for longer than a day either time.

Associated Press Sports Writer

Ernest Maggiore was better than perfect against Texas A&M Saturday. As result the defensive end for Louisiana State was named the Lineman of the Week by The Associated Press today.

The senior 22-year-old veteran from Norco, La., helped the Tigers, seventh ranked in this week's Associated Press college football poll, to a 10-0 victory by blocking a Texas A&M punt and falling on the ball in the end zone for a touchdown.

Charlie McClendon, LSU coach, praised Maggiore after the game. He was even more enthusiastic after viewing motion pictures of the game.

"He didn't miss a single assignment," McClendon said of the 5-foot-11, 215-pounder. "He made every stop he was supposed to make and some that other players were supposed to make."

Under the McClendon system of grading players, Maggiore thus was better than 100 per cent since he made stops that had been assigned to other players.

George Patton, junior tackle for Georgia, was high up in the voting by sports writers and broadcasters. He helped the Bulldogs upset Alabama 18-17 with a 55-yard touchdown return of an intercepted pass. Vince Dooley, Georgia coach, called the 210-pounder the top defensive player of the game.

Judge Rules Lockout, 181 Due Jobless Pay

JEFFERSON, Ohio (AP) — Work stoppage at a U.S. Industrial Chemicals Co. plant last year has been ruled a lockout and the 181 employees out of work for six weeks have been ruled eligible for unemployment compensation for that period.

Ashtabula County Common Pleas Court Judge Thomas D. Lambros said Tuesday he based his ruling on the decision that "there was no imminent danger of a strike," and therefore the company's action technically was a lockout.

Judge Will Rule Again On Girl's Status For Trial

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (AP) — Superior Court Judge Laurance daughter of an Amesville, Ohio,

T. Wren was to rule again today on whether 16-year-old Dixie Lee Radcliff should face charges as a juvenile or an adult in the fatal shooting of two men.

Wren ruled earlier that the preacher should be tried as an adult in the slayings of Robert Willis, 23, and Halvor Johnson, 28, both of Newport, N. H.

The judge, however, granted a request by the girl's court-appointed lawyer for a second hearing.

Should Miss Radcliff be convicted of murder as an adult, she would face the possibility of a death penalty.

If convicted as a juvenile, she would be sent to the Home of the Good Shepherd in Phoenix, Ariz. Girls sent to that institution are released at age 18 or when the Catholic sisters' order decides they have been rehabilitated.

If Wren upholds his earlier ruling, Miss Radcliff will go before a county grand jury along with Donald M. Boggs, 23, of Londerry, Ohio.

Miss Radcliff came west with

Boggs, and police said Boggs had admitted killing Willis and Johnson along a lonely stretch of highway in Northern Arizona.

Kentucky football coach Charles Bradshaw played his football at Kentucky under Paul Bryant, graduating in 1949.

Called Leader Of Crusade

First Lady 'Ambassador Of Beauty For America'

MILWAUKEE, Wis., (AP) — On a day's journey promoting parks and beautification, Lady Bird Johnson gently mixes in the Peace Corps, school kids and home town folks.

It seems like a political campaign.

But workers in the beautification vineyard call the President's wife the "leader of the crusade for a more beautiful America."

"America's No. 1 ambassador of beauty," was the title bestowed by Howard W. Gregg, general manager of the Milwaukee Park Commission as he led Mrs. Johnson on a tour of his parks Tuesday.

"Our most powerful ally in Washington," said Milwaukee Mayor Henry W. Maier, appealing to Mrs. Johnson for a research program to conquer Dutch elm disease, which has played havoc with historic trees here.

Mrs. Johnson had an appeal of her own. She urged the thousand members of the American Institute of Park Executives meeting here to instill in more young people a desire to preserve natural beauty.

The blessings of progress "are in many cases engulfing us," said Mrs. Johnson.

"No one wishes to turn back the clock of progress, but surely a civilization that can send a man to the moon can also find ways and means to maintain a clean and pleasant earth."

After the speech, the First Lady visited some beauty spots of Milwaukee's park system, followed by picture-taking tourists and serenaded by a gathering of first and second graders.

Second Union May Strike Newspapers

NEW YORK (AP) — Negotiators go back to the bargaining table today in New York's seven-day-old newspaper strike, complicated by the threatened entry of a second union into the dispute.

Mediators meet with the AFL-CIO New York Newspaper Guild and the New York Times at 10 a.m.

They scheduled a later session with the AFL-CIO Mailers Union, which served notice Tuesday its 875 members at seven papers will not go back to work even if the guild strike against the Times is settled.

The mailers dispute is with the Publishers Association of

New York, of which the Times and six other metropolitan dailies are members. The other members have suspended publication in support of the Times, leaving the city with only one major publishing daily, the afternoon New York Post. The Post is not an association member.

No negotiating sessions were held Tuesday in the Times strike. Mediator Theodore W. Kheel had asked both sides to take the day off to reflect on their positions.

The mailers announced that their members would not go back to work "until we have concluded a satisfactory agreement." The mailers are seeking job guarantees for 275 members classified as extras.

Awards Feature Meeting Of Cubs

A Cubmobile Derby followed the meeting, with 18 entrants. Awards included Goodballet, fastest and farthest; David Smith, shortest distance, and Blair, most reckless.

Ninety-seven attended the meeting, with Cubmaster Robert Bernstorf in charge.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Comedienne Lucille Ball must remain Mrs. Lucille Goldaper unless she asks to become Mrs. Lucille Morton.

That was the gist of a ruling Tuesday by Superior Court Commissioner James P. Natoli, who approved a request by comedian Gary Morton, Miss Ball's husband, to change his name from Goldaper to Morton.

Morton, 48, asked that Miss Ball's legal married name also be changed but Natoli said she must file her own petition.

Armstrong commutes 60 miles to Columbus and his job as director of the Ohio Mental Hygiene Department.

He said his wife took the news "just as any mother would," but isn't too worried about the space flight.

Relics Of Town Emerge As Water Levels Decline

By KENALENE COLLINS
North Adams (Mass.)
Transcript Writer

WILMINGTON, Vt. (AP) — New relics of a small town that thrived in the 18th and early 19th centuries emerge each day as water levels in Whitingham Lake decline from the prolonged drought.

For nearby residents, who once lived in Whitingham on what is now the lake's bottom, it is like the rise of a ghost.

The lake was formed in 1924 by New England Power Co. to generate power for New England and part of New York State.

It is the first time in memory that water levels have fallen low enough during the summer to reveal the flooded community.

Attracting the most attention are the water-soaked and bleached remains of what was once the backbone industry for Wilmington, the Mountain Mills Paper & Pulp Co.

The mill opened in the early 1800s and provided employment for 200 men. Between 30 and 40 homes of employees grew up around it.

Also emerging are pieces of a former highway between Wilmington and Readsboro, ties and spikes from a narrow-gauge railway, broken pottery and iron kettles.

The Hoosac Tunnel & Wilmington Railroad, known locally as the "Hoot, Toot and Whistle," once ran through the abandoned town.

Now it joins the Boston & Maine Railroad at Hoosac Tunnel and serves only Readsboro and Monroe Bridge.

The earthen dam stretching across a valley in Whitingham and holding back 11 miles of the Deerfield River to a depth of 200 feet in some places was an engineering feat when completed in 1924.

Most of the residents left after the start of the reservoir project. Some stayed on until the water lapped at their doorstep.

Jury Will Study Car Theft, Escape Counts

CINCINNATI (AP) — Car theft and escape charges against Malcolm Scarbrough, 30, will be considered here next week by a federal grand jury.

Scarbrough, who reportedly has escaped from custody at least 11 times, was brought here Tuesday from Knoxville, Tenn. He was arrested at Morristown, Tenn., Sept. 11, two days after he escaped from General Hospital here where he was being treated for a bullet wound. Police say Scarbrough apparently was shot during a filling station burglary in Bellefontaine.

Rev. Mase Relates Experiences

British Isles Travelogue Marks Meeting Of Rotary

"Shortbread and Sixpence," a cans could well learn a lesson travelogue of the British Isles, from such beauty and perhaps undertake a campaign to restore the natural attractions of their own countryside and clean up cities in the manner of the Scotsmen.

Rev. Mase, pastor of the Emmanuel Presbyterian Church, spent a year studying at the New College Theological Department of the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, after being awarded the Thomas Jamison scholarship.

When he had the opportunity, he traveled around the British Isles, accompanied by his wife, and kept a photographic record of their experiences.

SHOWN IN the slides were typical views of Edinburgh, not generally familiar to the average American, such as double-deck buses, kilted bagpipe bands, gothic structures and fabulous gardens.

During their stay, the couple lived in what was described as a semi-detached villa, the Scottish version of an American duplex. A canal behind the house used by college students for rowing practice provided one of the interesting sights.

Renting a car for about a pound a day, or less than $3, Rev. Mase and his wife took trips around the countryside. They were impressed, he said, with its unspoiled and unfiltered quality. The pastor said Ameri-

Jury Trial Of 16 Demonstrators To Start Oct. 4

CINCINNATI (AP)—The jury trial of 16 civil rights demonstrators arrested on trespassing charges are scheduled to start Oct. 4 in municipal court.

The trial dates for 21 other demonstrators have been placed on the indefinite calendar and municipal court sources indicated the trial dates will be set later.

The 16 were arrested July 26 when they climbed on construction forms at the East Avondale School site, starting a series of sit-ins during which almost 70 persons were arrested. The demonstrators protested alleged job discrimination by the building trades unions.

Five demonstrators who staged a sit-in Aug. 23 at the Plumbers' Union offices were granted jury trials earlier in the day by Municipal Judge William Mathews. Their cases were also placed on the indefinite calendar.

Debate On World Problems Due For Ecumenical Council

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Vatican Ecumenical Council's controversial declaration on modern world problems was clearly headed today for several weeks of spirited debate between bishops of the conservative and progressive camps.

The two groups are divided on whether the document goes too far or not far enough in trying to give answers on such pressing modern issues as birth control, world peace, nuclear warfare and social justice.

Five cardinals and archbishops took the floor in St. Peter's Basilica Tuesday when debate began on the 126-page text, longest of this fourth and final council session.

All approved the idea of a document, unique in the history of Roman Catholicism's 21 councils, that goes into such present-day global problems.

But some prelates said its 30,000 words made it too long, that it was needlessly repetitious in content, that its Latin was faulty.

U.S. Agents Nab Ohio Man, 40, On Weapons Charge

CLEVELAND (AP)—A gun collector and restorer of vintage airplanes has been arrested by federal agents for selling an unregistered machine pistol and for possessing an automatic weapon.

Edward J. Brennan Jr., 40, owner of an auto body shop in suburban North Olmsted, was arrested Tuesday at his home in Wellington, Lorain County. He is free on $1,000 personal bond while awaiting a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Clifford E. Bruce.

James L. Oakar, asst. U. S. attorney said three of seven automatic weapons found at Brennan's home were in firing condition. Federal law requires the purchase of a $200 tax stamp for each automatic weapon.

Brennan is charged with selling an unregistered German machine gun to William Vanderlinde, 23, Lindale, in 1962. States.

Meeting To Outline Program For 'Fire Prevention Week'

President Lyndon B. Johnson has issued a proclamation calling attention to the national program and pointing out that U.S. property losses from fires in 1964 exceeded $1,367,000,000.

Preliminary plans for the program were laid in earlier meetings of the safety committee and in conferences with members of the local fire department.

The Chamber safety committee is comprised of Samuel Brown, chairman, H. J. English, Alex Kidd, Richard Lee, James Miller, Phil Miraglata, Harold Snedler and James Walker.

1 Killed, 1 Injured When Trucks Collide

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP)—A 77-year-old Tallmadge man was killed in a two-truck crash south of Brimfield Tuesday.

Trades Council Will Oppose Proposed Boost In Sales Tax

The Trades and Labor Council of East Liverpool and Lower Columbiana County has gone on record in opposition to a proposed boost in sales tax from 3 to 4 per cent, one of three statewide proposals on the ballot at the Nov. 2 general election. Joseph A. Winters, secretary, announced today.

Winters said the increase is intended to provide $116 million more annually for public school operations. He said Trades Council delegates "take a position that education at all levels should be supported adequately," but he added that the labor group feels that "the present financial difficulties of the school system stem from the failure and indifference of the state administration and its legislative leaders."

Winters said Trades Council agrees with the findings of the Ohio AFL-CIO that "there are means available to close loopholes in our tax laws to provide adequate financing for Ohio's education needs without increasing the burden on the low and middle income groups." He said these alternatives are:

Planning Commission Post Resigned By Rea

William C. Rea resigned Tuesday afternoon as a member of the City Planning Commission after he was advised by City Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper continued service would be incompatible under Ohio law with the Council seat to which he was elected Monday night.

Rea, elected to the unexpired term as First Ward councilman, submitted his resignation to Mayor George E. Willshaw. Rea said he conferred with the solicitor after the question of the possible incompatibility of the two posts was raised Tuesday morning.

Rea, a Democrat, will serve in Council until Dec. 31. He was elected to replace Floyd Murray, who advanced to Council president. Murray succeeded George E. Willshaw, who advanced to the mayor's office on the resignation of Merrill D. Hall.

Trees Given Attention Of Council At Chester

Problems created by trees occupied the attention of Chester City Council at its meeting Tuesday night in the chambers at City Hall.

Percy Willison, chairman of the street department, reported that a large locust tree located near the railroad track between 3rd and 4th Sts. had been cut down. The tree had posed a threat in blocking the line at that point should a storm have knocked down the already-weakened trunk and branches.

Willison reported no success in talks held with railroad officials to share the cost of removing the potential hazard and that the city would have to pay the full amount of $175.

Walter McSwegan, councilman, brought up the matter of trees near the Junior High School constituting a possible danger to students because of dead limbs. On a motion by Donald Hissam, seconded by Willison, Roy Cashdollar, city clerk, was instructed to write a letter to the Hancock County Board of Education complaining of the trees situated on school property.

It also was pointed out that branches of trees were obscuring traffic signs on Indiana Ave. warning motorists of near-by student crossing areas.

Council agreed to investigate the matter.

It was announced that arrangements had been made with the railroad company for smoothing a bumpy grade crossing at 5th St.

Willison was given permission to have necessary repairs made to the grader, preparatory to its use this winter.

Television cable service in the city was discussed briefly, but then deferred until such time when Council members confer with James Jordan, city solicitor, regarding the contract which has been in effect since 1953.

Those who will attend the Saturday and remaining sessions are Mrs. Ola Weaver, Mrs. Dorothy Horsley, Mrs. Jean Stoddard and Mrs. Lydia Crawford.

Remittances of $1,286.13 were approved, with state utility tax of $1,050 comprising the largest figure. Bills of $2,297.15 were ordered paid.

Mayor Harry Abrams and Charles Kology and Richard Johnston, Council members, also were present.

Local Delegation To Take Part In Quota Sessions

Nine from East Liverpool plan to attend the 6th District conference of Quota International, Inc., Friday through Sunday at the Voyager Motor Inn in Youngstown.

Mrs. Marie Hays, president and Miss Ethelyn Exley, recording secretary, will serve as delegates from the local club.

Others planning to be present for the Friday sessions are Miss Gladys DeBolt, past district governor; Mrs. Laurine Reinacher and Miss Selma Ladinske.

Not Just His Day

Robbery Goes Smoothly—Almost

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Two gun-waving bandits stepped coolly into a downtown jewelry store Tuesday afternoon and held the co-owner, Harry Kagan, at gunpoint while they scooped up cash and gems valued at more than $5,000.

Then they ran outside to their waiting getaway car, an old convertible. It wouldn't start.

As the bandits desperately tried to start the motor, things began to happen. Kagan called police. In a camera store two doors away, Donald L. Adams, a shipping clerk and amateur photographer, saw the men with guns get into the car and rushed out, camera in hand.

"The back window of the convertible was out, so I stuck the camera inside and snapped some pictures," he said.

One of the bandits turned and aimed his gun at Adams.

"It went click," Adams said, "but I got out of the way."

The bandits did, too.

They leaped out from their car and headed toward a sports car being parked nearby. The driver saw them coming and fled with the keys.

The bandits then commanded another car. The driver, Ruth Schrumpf, tried to get out with her poodle, Lucky. Her husband, Al Schrumpf, appeared on the scene and rescued both wife and dog.

The bandits roared off in the Schrumpf car — for about 100 feet. Then it stalled.

They leaped out and separated. One of them tried to commandeer another auto, but the driver — another woman — roared off, leaving him standing at the curb, gun in hand.

He was still standing there when policeman Robert Frederickson came up on his motorcycle. The bandit pointed the gun at Frederickson, and ordered him off the cycle.

The officer got off all right, but grabbed the gunman and wrestled him to the ground.

He was identified later as Walter E. Bigelow, 31, who was recently paroled from San Quentin where he had been serving a sentence for robbery.

At police headquarters, Bigelow was asked about the trouble with the getaway cars.

His answer: "I've been in The Joint so long, I forgot how to drive."

The second bandit? Oh yes . . . he got away with the loot.

Christian Unity Through Prayer

4 Members Of 3 Faiths Set New Monastic Order

WIEN, Mo. (AP) — Four members of three Christian faiths have formed an ecumenical monastery in a north central Missouri hamlet to promote Christian unity through prayer.

Two Roman Catholics, an Episcopalian and a married Syrian Orthodox priest are the men of the new monastic order, the Brothers of Christian Unity. The order is open to Roman Catholics, Orthodox and Protestants.

"We live under modified Benedictine rules," said the Rev. Robert Bowman, the Episcopalian. "This essentially means we do not have corporal punishment. The life is one of poverty, chastity, obedience and prayer."

The Rev. Mr. Bowman will take his final vows as a member of the two-year-old order Thursday at Christ Church Cathedral in St. Louis. The Rt. Rev. George L. Cadigan, Episcopal bishop of Missouri, will conduct the ceremony.

Miss Tenant will become the bride of Lt. (jg) Robert Jautz, Navy reserve, of Wauwatosha, Wis., Saturday at the Methodist Church in Salineville.

Joy Mullins Honor Guest

Continuing a round of showers for Miss Joy Mullins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Mullins of the Columbian Rd., Dr. Bertha Brounce of Upper Arlington, Ohio, was hostess at a 1 o'clock luncheon Saturday.

Twenty co-workers of Miss Mullins, who is secretary-receptionist in the Hematology Department of Ohio State University Hospital, attended.

Miss Mullins will become the bride of David Michael Young of Zanesville Oct. 17 at ceremonies in the Indiana Presbyterian Church at Columbus.

Mrs. Ronald Adams of Morgantown, W. Va., the former Miss Corlene Bye, assisted the hostess. Mrs. Mullins, mother of the bride-to-be, Mrs. Jack Rance of Salem and Mrs. Delbert Young of Zanesville, mother of the bridegroom-to-be, were special guests.

Miss Mullins also was entertained Sunday afternoon when Mrs. Bruce Sutton of Columbus, the former Bonnie Cosma, and Mrs. Adams served as hostesses for 13 at the Sutton home.

Guests were present from Columbus, Hebron and Zanesville. They included Mrs. Mullins and

Bringing Up A Family

By Dr. GARRY MYERS

Practice Improves Reading, Spelling

Recently we considered ways to help the poor speller master the correct spelling of short, simple words he often misspells in his written work. Today let us consider how we can help the child who has trouble in the reading or spelling of longer and less familiar words. As the Dr. Garry Myers attacks such a word with your help, pronounce each word slowly and distinctly for him as he looks at it carefully with you. Be sure to make clearly the sound of each syllable of this word as you say it once or several times while he carefully looks at it. Spell it aloud with him if he seems to get it easily.

When your child is doing written work for school, let him know you will gladly spell any word for him about which he has doubt. Thus you can encourage him never to guess the spelling of a word. It would be wonderful if you can cause him to acquire a good spelling conscience. Of course you will want your child, gradually, to acquire the habit of looking up in the dictionary any word whose spelling he is not sure of.

But if you angrily tell him to look up the word in the dictionary, even when he is in high school, he may prefer to guess and gamble on its spelling.

YOU MIGHT rather quietly find out if he gets the basic sound of the whole one-syllable word or the sounds of each syllable in a longer word. Like him, you will be inclined to be too much in a hurry. Do proceed slowly and calmly.

If the poor speller is reading aloud, it may be well for you to tell him the word on which he falters and have him finish the sentence or paragraph. Later you might wisely pause and go back and help him attack the pronunciation of the word. If he wants to spell it out then, very well.

But if you are working with him on reading, his spelling of the word could divert his attention from the reading and the meaning involved.

MANY A child in the grades may be lying on his stomach on the floor reading while his mother is busy cooking, mending or performing other household duties. If he comes to a word which stumps him and chooses to spell it, his mother may easily give him the help he needs, saying the word for him. There's hardly one best way. When he is making progress and chooses to keep trying, you will know the way must be pretty good.

When your child is doing written work for school, let him know you will gladly spell any word for him about which he has doubt. Thus you can encourage him never to guess the spelling of a word. It would be wonderful if you can cause him to acquire a good spelling conscience. Of course you will want your child, gradually, to acquire the habit of looking up in the dictionary any word whose spelling he is not sure of.

But if you angrily tell him to look up the word in the dictionary, even when he is in high school, he may prefer to guess and gamble on its spelling.

YOU CAN feel sure a poor reader in the upper grades of high school is well on the way to becoming a better, even a good speller, if he is making it a habit to keep a list of the words he has spelled wrong on papers returned to him; and if, moreover, he regularly practices at correct spelling of the words in this list.

er. He said funds for state races traditionally are raised by state parties, with national help coming in expert political personnel and advice.

Democrats in the two gubernatorial election states have not asked for national committee aid, the spokesman said.

New Jersey GOP Chairman Webster B. Todd said in an interview he had hoped for some financial assistance from the national party. "But they've got their problems, too," he said.

Both Republican candidates already have had campaign assists from former President Dwight D. Eisenhower. He was in Richmond, Va., a week ago, and in Newark, N.J., Monday, for fund raising appearances.

Todd said it would take at least $500,000 to run "a real bang up campaign" in New Jersey. "I'd hate to guess at this point, but if we get half that amount we're doing well," he said. "And the Democrats are talking about a million dollars."

The New Jersey chairman said his party already is $80,000 in debt, and will not go deeper to run the gubernatorial campaign.

Todd said Dumont's chances are improving, and if that continues, fund raising should be easier.

Todd and Virginia GOP Chairman Robert J. Corber said they believe the Democratic candidates will stage massive radio, television and newspaper advertising campaigns in the days just before election.

At that point, Corber said, the Republican money situation could become critical.

Corber said he believes Virginia Democrats will spend about $450,000 on the campaign, and the Republicans would like to raise $250,000.

"We haven't raised but a small fraction of that amount," he said, adding the GOP probably will fall short of that goal.

Nevertheless, in a traditionally Democratic state, he said Republicans are doing better at gubernatorial fund raising than they ever have before.

Corber said Virginia Republicans have not asked the national committee for money. He said the party is not in debt.

Rogers Meeting Off For Lack Of Quorum

ROGERS — Lack of a quorum prevented a scheduled meeting of Council Tuesday night, called by Mayor Glenn Rhodes to consider awarding of contracts for fencing the village lot along Depot St.

Present were the Mayor Rhodes and Councilmen Glenn Baker and Dale Williams and Clerk Mrs. Maine Hall. Absent were Councilmen Robert White, George Heller, Wallace Swain and William Crawford.

Mayor Rhodes said another meeting will be held Monday night at 7 at the fire station. The meeting will be brief, he explained, since firemen will meet at 8 p.m.

Cuba Described As 'Springboard' For Red China

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Internal Security subcommittee has published a Cuban exile's claim that Chinese Communists are using Cuba as a springboard for Latin American infiltration.

The claim was made to the subcommittee Aug. 4 by Enrique Chau, a Cuban whose father was Chinese, and released Tuesday. Chau is a waiter in a restaurant in Miami.

Some 10,000 Chinese Communists entered Cuba in the last five years, he said, and "in Cuba you have masters to falsify documents and passports for these people to emigrate illegally."

With the establishment of diplomatic relations between Communist China and Cuba in 1959, Chau said, "the door was opened wide for Cuba to be the base of operations for the Red Chinese Communists that fanned all over Latin America."

Chau said he got his information from members of the Chinese colony who have emigrated from Cuba to Miami."

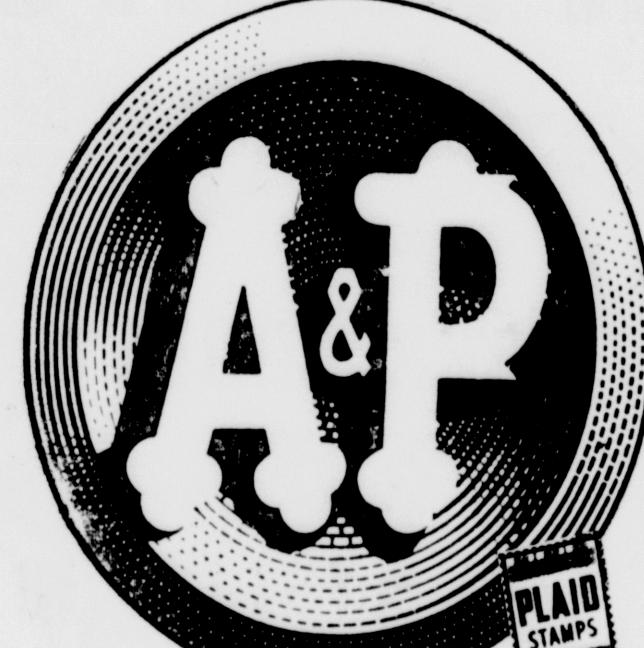

6 Will Attend Session On Development Aid

East Liverpool will send a six-man delegation to Steubenville Thursday noon to hear an explanation on operation of an industrial financing plan approved by Ohio voters in May and later implemented by the State Legislature.

Scheduled to attend the luncheon at the Ft. Steuben Hotel are George A. Shaw, Alvin T. Babb, Nelson Hagerty and E. R. Chandler, representing the Community Improvement Corp. and the Chamber of Commerce, and Mayor George E. Willshaw and Safety Service Director Robert E. Vodrey, representing the city administration.

The meeting for civic leaders in a six-county area was arranged by the Steubenville Area Community Improvement Corp. and the Steubenville Area Development Council in cooperation with the Ohio Department of Development. Experts from state government and the Ohio Chamber will explain the industrial financing law.

Ike Turns First Earth For College Named After Him

SENECA FALLS, N.Y. (AP)

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower turned the first spadeful of earth in starting construction of a college named for him, then heard comedian Bob Hope quip:

"Where else but in America could a man in command of our armies, leader of our country and a leader in the field of education wind up in Seneca Falls shoveling dirt?"

Hope's remarks, and Eisenhower's smiling reaction, came at groundbreaking ceremonies for Eisenhower College, a liberal arts school scheduled to open in 1967. A crowd of about 12,000 attended

The institution will have about 1,500 students and will be on a 265-acre tract on the shore of Cayuga Lake.

Eisenhower said the liberal arts college "is the key to the understanding and exercise of real citizenship."

Industrialist, Wife Appeal Tax Charges

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Former industrialist Sydney L. Albert is appealing an Internal Revenue Service charge that he owes more than $8 million in 1966 taxes, and his wife is filing a similar petition on $273,258.05.

Albert maintains that the IRS arrived at the deficiency by erroneously determining additional income and gains he never received.

Hints from Heloise

—By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: I am a recent bride, and one of our gifts was a beautiful lace tablecloth.

I haven't used the cloth yet, as I'm scared to death I'll do something wrong and ruin it the very first time I launder it.

Please give me any tips you have for keeping the cloth as lovely as it is now.

PATRICIA KNOWLES

DEAR PAT: One of the largest manufacturers of lace tablecloths has given us some very good suggestions on laundering them.

They say that (whether you wash lace cloths by hand or by machine), they should always be washed in warm, not hot, sudsy water (don't add bleach), and should also be rinsed in warm water.

Never wring or twist the lace cloth, just gently squeeze out the excess water.

They do not advise drying lace cloths in the dryer, but hanging them evenly over a clean, rust-proof line to dry.

I personally put a large, clean sheet on my living room rug, spread the cloth on this, and pin it (with straight pins, and shaping as I go) to the sheet.

I don't iron my lace cloths, but if you prefer to — put a large, white bath towel over your ironing board, lay the cloth wrong side up, and iron it with a warm iron while the cloth is still just a wee bit damp.

One more little bit of advice:

For goodness sake, don't ever wash anything which has buttons, hooks, snaps, or zippers with any article made of lace.

Lace tablecloths are beautiful and, with proper care, will last for years and years.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I took a one-pound package of nuts, ground them in my blender, and put one-half-cup measurements into individual, small plastic sandwich bags, and all the small bags into one large one and put it in the freezer.

When I am ready to bake, I take out either one or two packages, which ever is needed, and the nuts are all pre-ground and measured for my recipe.

THELMA R.

DEAR HELOISE: When I scrub any of my closets, or my pantry, I always turn my electric fan, with the oscillating movement, toward the closet, and it cuts the drying time in half.

CONSTANT READER.

DEAR HELOISE: There are six in our family, and ours is a one-bathroom house, so there was a problem of enough towel racks to accommodate all those bath towels, and not enough wall space for so many towel racks.

We solved this by putting cup hooks into the wall, sewing a little loop of cotton tape to one corner of each towel, and hanging them on these hooks.

To make sure that each person uses only his own towel, we made a little name plate to put above each hook.

HARRIET.

DEAR HELOISE: When my 6-year-old boy started school, it was strange and new to him, and he was hesitant to go.

I thought of drawing a silly picture of some sort on a paper table mat and putting it in his lunch box. I am no artist, and, believe me, my pictures were truly works of art!

He was so intrigued to see what they would be that he soon lost his shyness, and enjoys his lunch and school.

MRS. G. NICELEY.

DEAR HELOISE: I discovered a new use for plastic bleach bottles (the half-gallon size).

Cut them off the depth of your hat, and wrap in tissue paper. Tape this to the inside of your hat box, and presto! a perfect stand to keep your hat from crushing.

If the hat is smaller, use a smaller bottle, and the same method works.

SUE DIXON.

The corporations also had pleaded no contest.

2 Executives Are Fined In Price Rigging

NEW YORK (AP) — Two executives of two of the nation's giant steel firms were fined $35,000 Tuesday for conspiring to rig the price of carbon sheet steel.

W. J. Stephens, now president of Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp., but an executive of Bethlehem Steel Co. at the time of the conspiracy, and James P. Barton, an executive of U.S. Steel Corp., had pleaded no contest.

U.S. District Judge Edward Weintraub, whom he had concurred in a term "but your past records merit the court's consideration."

He fined Stephens $25,000 and Barton $10,000. Each could have received a year in prison and a $50,000 fine.

Carbon sheet steel is used in making automobiles, washing machines, kitchen appliances and other articles.

Last month, Judge Weintraub fined eight corporations $50,000 each for the price-fixing conspiracy traced from 1955 to 1961 in the $3.6-billion carbon steel sheet industry, which accounts for about one-third of all finished steel mill products in the nation.

The corporations also had pleaded no contest.

Lisbon PTA Plans Events

LISBON — Plans for a membership drive and the annual fall festival were discussed when the McKinley Parent-Teacher Association held its first meeting of the fall term Monday night.

Mrs. Dean Rose will be chairman for the member drive Oct. 1-15.

The festival, the group's major fund-raising project, has been set for Saturday, Oct. 16, from 5 to 9 p.m. at the school.

An auction of merchandise contributed by Lisbon merchants will be part of the program.

Mrs. Jack Hammitt and William Burnip, co-chairmen of the ways and means committee, are in charge of the arrangements.

Miss Della Wetzel, principal, was presented by Mrs. Kenneth Foster, president. She, in turn, introduced the teaching staff.

Parents visited with the teachers in their classrooms later.

An explanation of the school insurance plan was given by A. Monty Muntean, representative of the Nationwide Insurance Co.

The Junior PTA program was directed by Mrs. Raymond Moore.

A combined meeting of the Lincoln-McKinley PTA's will be held Oct. 18 at 7:30 in the Lincoln School.

Canada's Peace Corps Shows 318 Volunteers

TORONTO (AP) — Canada's version of the Peace Corps, started four years ago, has 318 volunteers in 22 countries of Canada and then in the country of destination. The stress is on language, although this year's orientation program includes a seminar in community development.

Called the Canadian University Service Overseas — CUSO — the privately administered organization hopes eventually to have 1,000 young people working in developing countries.

Recipient countries pay the salaries of volunteers on a local-equivalent basis and have the final say in accepting a volunteer for any specific assignment. The failure rate is less than 5 per cent.

CUSO pays the bill for orientation, transportation, insurance, some allowances and central administration. McWhinney says it works out to $2,500 to $3,000 per volunteer, compared with the $18,000-a-member cost of the U.S. Peace Corps.

CUSO volunteers include social workers in Sarawak, mechanical engineers in Kenya, town planners in Tanzania, lab technicians in Jamaica and geologists in Ecuador.

Keep In Trim
By IDA JEAN KAIN
At The Heart Of Heart Trouble

September marks a turning point. Back to work we go. We tend to settle into a regular routine. If outdoor living has conditioned you for more activity, why not give it all up and settle for a way of living that will gradually fit away your plus feelings of well-being?

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Dear Natalie: A Friday and Saturday night date and a Sunday afternoon date is enough social life for any high school girl.

Keep In Trim
By IDA JEAN KAIN
At The Heart Of Heart Trouble

Obviously, sensible exercise can strengthen the heart just as regular use maintains the tone of any other muscle. But to avoid over-exertion, such exercise must be a continual part of one's daily life.

What often causes trouble in middle-aged men who live sedentary lives are the spurts of activity — over-exertion on the weekend and a sudden dash for a commuter train, the hour of steady shoveling after a snowfall — when the heart is not conditioned even to mild walks.

Significantly, the countries which are characterized by a low fat diet and a consequent low serum cholesterol level are also characterized by a high level of physical activity.

On the basis of present studies, the role of physical activity in maintaining a healthy heart may be as significant, if not more so, than dietary factors.

CONSIDER that the heart weighs less than three-quarters of a pound. Yet it may pump eight to nine tons of blood through the system daily, resting only a breath between each beat. When damaged — even seriously sometimes — the heart, amazingly, can repair itself. To do this sort of lifetime job, it has to be in the Biblical words, "Fearfully and wonderfully made."

Why then, you may reasonably ask, is fatal heart attack one of the leading killers in America today? Oddly enough, many specialists now list as a contributing cause our lack of regular, daily exercise, rather than the stress of modern life.

To quote the famous Dr. Paul Dudley White: "Nervous strain never kills a healthy man" — one whose heart and arteries are sound. The best antidote for nervous tension and hard intellectual work, the doctor claims, is physical fatigue brought on by regular, sensible exercise to which the heart is accustomed.

AMERICANS tend to ride, seldom walk, use elevators and schools during Book Week in November, and dream up schemes to avoid as much physical effort as possible. Yet our death rate from heart ailments is the highest in the world. Why? Because we are far exceeds that of countries which are against midweek dating if

Dear Spokesman: What do you mean if the people from my state were being run down? I'm from Iowa, too.

Sioux City, to be exact, and I don't appreciate the insults any more than you do — especially when people make cracks about the corn.

Weekend Limit

Dear Ann: I'm a high school senior, almost 17 years old, and my grades are better than average. You say high school kids should not be allowed to date during the week. You seem to be on the side of teen-agers in everything but this. Why are you against midweek dating if

Catholic Women Attend Meeting

Fourteen members of the Columbian County Deanery of the National Council of Catholic Women attended the meeting of the Diocesan Board Saturday at St. Stephen's Church of Niles.

Mrs. Eugene Hay of East Palestine, president, presided for business and reported on the state convention held at Columbus and the Institute at Pittsburgh.

Refreshments were served by women of the Altar and Rosary Society.

Attending from here were Miss Helen Auld, president of the county deanery, and Mrs. Lillian McKeever, family life and education chairman.

The next session will be Nov. 13 at St. Benedict's Church of Canton.

Holiday Plans LaunchedMerchants Given Report On State Group's Meeting

Dayton Allen, chairman, reported to the East Liverpool Merchants Association Tuesday on the annual meeting of the Ohio State Council of Retail Merchants Sept. 9-10 at Granville, which he attended.

Allen submitted his report at the ELMA's monthly meeting in the Chamber of Commerce office. He and E. R. Chandler, secretary, represented the local organization at the statewide meeting at Granville Inn.

Allen discussed reports which were represented at Granville on success achieved in other Ohio cities in using so called "minibus" vehicles in place of standard-size buses for mass transportation. He said the smaller vehicles are cheaper to buy and to operate and they appear to be more attractive to patrons. They also are easier to maneuver in city traffic, he said.

The group also discussed new Ohio laws on shop-lifting. Wayne Snyder, manager of the J. C. Penney Co. store, was thanked for showing a film to members of the association last Wednesday, explaining shop-lifting methods.

Harold Allison outlined his committee's progress on plans for the annual community Christmas program. He said the committee will meet again soon to continue preparations.

Discussion also was held on a proposed fall promotion. Max Shoff, chairman, said the committee will meet again later in the week to continue with plans.

Vincent LaNeve, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, discussed possible cooperation with the ELMA in various promotions, including staging the annual Christmas parade at Thanksgiving.

Ralph Finley reported on a meeting between an ELMA committee and City Council Monday night on the merchants' proposal for possible use of brass tokens to provide free metered parking for customers.

The merchants proposed to provide their customers with the tokens for use in parking met-

School Nurse To Take Part In State Panel

Mrs. Charlotte Logston of 922 W. Grant St., Newell, will take part in a panel discussion during a statewide gathering of the West Virginia Nurses Association in Charleston Friday.

The next regular meeting will be Tuesday, Oct. 19. However, a special session probably will be called early in October to discuss the fall promotion plans.

Steel Executive Talks At Meeting Of Area Nurses

WHEELING — "The patterns of adulthood and old age are pretty well determined in one's early years. What makes charming 70-year-old ladies is something that starts with making 17-year-old girls charming."

This point was made by Forrest H. Kirkpatrick, who addressed the Tri-State Industrial Nurses Association Tuesday night.

Kirkpatrick, a vice president of the Wheeling Steel Corp., used the theme "Growing Up."

"In a very real sense, the pediatrician can be as helpful in preparation for retirement as the geriatrician," he said.

"Young people in school should learn attitudes and habits of self-reliance and self-responsibility which will serve them well in old age. These attitudes and habits, of course, are necessary at any age — 30 or 40, 50 or 70 — and they must not be considered as teachings just to be stored away for use only upon retirement," Kirkpatrick told the nurses.

"Good adjustment means that old age is the period in which we do not have to be so frantically active about things just to give the appearance of being useful."

The first meeting of the year for the association was held at Wilson Lodge, Oglebay Park. Mrs. Ruby Webb of the Hall China Co. in East Liverpool is president of the group.

For hitting Dodger catcher John Roseboro on the head with a baseball bat, Giant pitcher Juan Marichal actually was suspended 10 days instead of eight, as originally announced.

Farm Programs Viewed In Beaver

The group left from the Penn Beaver Hotel this morning to view such farm practices as diversion terraces, contour strip-cropping, spring development, farm ponds and timber stands.

Visits to the Youth Forestry Camp at Raccoon Creek State Park and the Ambridge Water Authority Reservoir also were on the program.

VFW At Chester Sets Prizes For 'Voice Of Democracy'

Charles W. Morris reported on the progress of the "Voice of Democracy" contest to be conducted in the high schools of the nation during November at the meeting of VFW Burge-Casto Post 6450 of Chester Monday night.

The post will offer three prizes at Oak Glen High School — $25 to the first place winner, who will compete in the county contest; $15 to the second-place winner, and $10 to the third-place winner.

The contest is being sponsored nationally by the Broadcasters of Radio of America and the VFW. All local winners will compete for a national first prize of $5,000, second prize of $4,000 and third prize of $3,000. Morris is chairman of the contest for the local post.

Others on the panel will be Mrs. Opal Dean of Charleston, special education teacher for the mentally retarded, and Mrs. Genevieve Smith of Charleston, school nurse for the Kanawha County Board of Education.

The morning session will be devoted to a discussion of the emotionally disturbed child and during the afternoon attention will be centered upon the speech and hearing problems of the school-age child.

The next meeting will be Oct. 18 at 8 p.m. at the post home.

State Officials, Press Rapped By Central Faculty

XENIA, Ohio (AP) — State officials and the press were criticized by the faculty of Central State College Tuesday for what it called unfounded and false charges against the faculty in connection with the misuse of $1.5 million in college funds.

The faculty asserts that the charges against it are in error and . . . were not properly processed," said E. O. Woolfolk, chairman of the Faculty Committee, in referring to a state auditor's report which itemized $46,158 in unpaid charges for luncheons, dinners, banquets and special parties.

"These are not personal accounts, but are expenses for fully authorized university functions," Woolfolk said.

British Teachers Decide To Ban Their Homework

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP) — More than 40,000 British teachers have decided to ban homework—homework for themselves, not their pupils.

Beginning Oct. 4, members of the National Association of Schoolmasters will confine their work to classroom hours, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

They will correct no math papers in evening hours.

They will take no compositions home with them at night.

They will coach no athletic teams at 4 p.m.

The strike against homework will last two weeks.

Said Terence Casey, 45, secretary of the association: "This is a protest against a suggestion by our employers that teaching is practically a part-time occupation."

"All our outside activities will cease at 4 o'clock, and work not completed during the day will be left undone."

The association represents about one in every seven of the country's teachers. The members are angry over a recent award which increased their pay by an average of $5.60 to $8.40 a week.

In making the award, there was a suggestion that the teaching profession allows a teacher to earn money in his or her spare time.

The association wants the government to set up a commission to examine what the teachers claim are many deficiencies in the country's educational structure.

The National Union of Teachers — the biggest teachers' union — said a commission had already examined the educational structure. It intimated it would not go along with the homework ban.

The spokesman for the National Association of Schoolmasters said:

"We want all the existing educational deficiencies, which have been concealed for too long, properly looked into even if it takes 10 years."

This association is made up solely of men teachers. More than half the members of the rival union of teachers are women.

The Ministry of Education said it was difficult to state an average teacher's pay because of the numerous classifications. A spokesman said it might be about $2,520 a year.

Hike In New Car Prices To Boost Cost Of Living

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Next to reports on the cost of consumer higher food prices a hike in the price tag on new cars is most likely to spell a rising cost of living to most people.

A costlier car means more to many auto-conscious Americans than even dearer clothing or higher rents.

With all of these tending upward this year, it's a good thing that incomes also are expected to rise for a lot of people — but not all.

Food prices soared in the spring and early summer. And now the public is watching the debuts of the 1966 car models both for their new styling and their price tags.

Many would-be buyers have expected higher prices this fall ever since the wage increases in the auto industry.

But Chrysler, in announcing that most of its models this fall will cost more than last, says the increases don't reflect higher production costs. Mainly, says the auto maker, they result from inclusion in the standard price of a number of safety devices previously found in the list of extras which the buyer has become accustomed to take into account.

As the new models — and the new price lists — are unveiled, leaders in the auto industry are expressing conviction that the American public is still in a buying mood. They expect still another record sales year. General Motors predicts car sales will rise by another two million units in the new model year.

The car makers may feel that higher prices can be made to stick. People will doubtless grumble about the rising cost of living. They are more or less used to its going up gradually month after month, and react — mostly conversationally rather than in purse string tightening — only when the spurt hits everyone at once, as in the case of rising food prices.

Bowen pleaded not guilty to the charges filed in connection with burglaries at the Hideaway Tavern and Craig's Market. Bond was set at $500 each on County Judge James MacDonald Tuesday.

Bowen was taken into custody one at once, as in the case of inside the tavern by Wellsville police.

Hospital Aide To Serve As Fund Leader

Joseph Hutchinson, assistant director of City Hospital, has been named chairman of the United Fund's public affairs division for the October campaign.

Richard Martin, campaign chairman, said Hutchinson, of 422 W. 6th St., will be in charge of the division which will solicit government and public institution employees.

The appointment of Hutchinson completes the division chairmen for the $115,000 drive which will be kicked off Oct. 4.

A dinner for top industrial and civic leaders will be held at the Vagabond Lodge on Route 30

Oct. 4 to acquaint them with details of the upcoming campaign, which will provide operating funds for 12 area agencies.

Richard Emmerling, president of the United Fund, is in charge of the dinner event.

Phil Bassi, a 193-pound junior quarterback from West Babylon, N.Y., wears jersey No. 13 with the Navy football team. He's the No. 4 signal caller for the Middies.

Will Scrap Quotas, Set Ceiling

Top Senators See Okay
On Immigration Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate leaders expected passage today of a bill to scrap immigration quotas based on national origins and to put a ceiling on immigration from the Western Hemisphere.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., floor manager of the bill, said the only amendment he expects to be brought up is one designed to bar the deportation of Dominican Gen. Elias Wessin.

Wessin has protested that U.S. Army personnel forced him to leave the Dominican Republic M. Dirksen, after a discussion with rebel forces refused to of Thurmond's proposal by the surrender their weapons to a Senate GOP Policy Committee, new provisional government said there is fear that Wessin unless he were removed.

He was taken to Miami, Fla., ostensibly to become the Dominican consul there, but he rejected the post after his arrival. The U.S. Immigration service is now studying his status.

The amendment, proposed by Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., is phrased in general terms. It would provide that "no person involuntarily brought physically into the United States by the United States government or its agents shall subsequently be deported from the United States under any circumstances."

Kennedy predicted defeat of the amendment.

Army personnel forced him to Republican Leader Everett Dirksen, after a discussion with rebel forces refused to of Thurmond's proposal by the surrender their weapons to a Senate GOP Policy Committee, new provisional government said there is fear that Wessin unless he were removed.

might cause difficulty in the future. For example, he said, it might prevent deportation of someone who committed a felony.

The key feature of the immigration bill, one of the administration's top priority measures, is the elimination over the next three years of the national origins quota system.

Adopted in 1924, it assigns quotas to nations outside the Western Hemisphere to reflect the ethnic balance of the U.S. population in 1920. No numerical limit is placed on immigration from nations in this hemisphere under present law.

The Senate Judiciary Committee voted to set an annual ceiling of 120,000 on immigration from Canada, Mexico and other Western Hemisphere nations beginning July 1, 1968.

White Ford won 10 straight games in Yankee Stadium before he suffered his first loss at home in 1965. The Baltimore Orioles snapped his string, 2-1.

Ozzie's Off And Running Again

While everyone else in the TV industry breathlessly was awaiting reviews and early ratings on the new shows last week, Ozzie Nelson was breezing into his 14th season with that same pseudoname "who, me?" look he's had on his phiz for the past 30 years.

"Gee, you'd know better about this than I would," says this slow-aging juvenile, whenever he's questioned about the intricacies of TV and how "The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet" has outlasted everything but Ed Sullivan, Red Skelton and "What's My Line?"

OZZIE would have you believe he is just an ex-bandleader who married his singer and had two sons in time to catch the family situation comedy cycle that hit radio in the early '40s, and that he still wears loafers because he hasn't mastered the complexities of tying a bow knot.

Another school of show business thought insists that Ozzie not only invented family comedy—but gave Dave and Rick their choice at birth of becoming actors or getting drowned, and that he wears loafers because tying shoelaces takes time and time is money.

"Gosh, I would like to say we had a lot of new things going this season, but it's all about the same," Ozzie says, modestly. "It will help to have June back, of course."

JUNE BLAIR, whom Oz is referring to, is eldest son David's wife. She's been off the series nearly two seasons trying to promote a career away from the Nelson tribe, but apparently has discovered that Hollywood has an oversupply of pretty young actresses.

In the Nelson fold she earns about $1,500 and $2,000 a week, which is a lot of cereal.

Dave himself still aspires to becoming a director and will direct a few of the Nelson episodes again this season with Ozzie looking over his shoulder, of course. Dave also landed his first outside directing assignment, an episode of ABC's new "O. K. Crackerby" series.

BROTHER RICK and his wife, the former Kristin Harmon (daughter of Tom Harmon and actress Elyse Knox), will have their share in "The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet" again.

Rick rapidly is becoming the affluent member of the family

AS OZZIE takes his increasing family (there are two grandsons, Dave's Davy, 3, and Rick's Tracy, 2, who are being groomed) into the new season, his only regret is that CBS' ex-president Jim Aubrey didn't leave "CBS Reports" where it was at the beginning of last season—7:30 p.m. Wednesdays opposite the Nelsons.

Russek, a board member for the last 4½ years, was reappointed to a nine-year term last November and was named vice president. Gov. Hulett Smith is expected to name a replacement for him in time for the next board meeting on Oct. 12.
